

Mark Yuzuik was raised in a family where love was abundant and money was not.

He witnessed his parents struggle through many hard times and swore to himself he would find a way to become wealthy so he could take care of his family. As Mark grew up, his thirst for creating wealth was only exceeded by his passion for helping other people.

Today, Mark is a self-made multi-millionaire who has touched the lives of people everywhere he goes. He gives credit for his success to his willingness to always strive for more. Mark surrounds himself with the types of people that are willing to hold him accountable to the standards he needs to live by in order to maximize his talents.

As an avid student, Mark has found his coaches to be one of the most vital components to achieving his dreams.

He teaches his students that simply having the knowledge is not enough...you must consistently take the actions necessary as well and a coach can be one of the best investments you'll ever make in helping you to make your dreams a reality. Mark also conducts multi-day seminars along with his partners in the areas of Real Estate Investing, Personal Growth, and Hypnosis.

While many speakers teach these same types of programs, it is Mark's love of people and his passion for making a difference that will shine through in his words and in his presence on stage.
